Report On

“Workshop on Advanced Python Django”

T. Z. A. S. P. Mandal's Pragati College of Arts & Commerce, Dombivli (E) organized “Workshop on Advanced Python Django” by “Quastech Technology”. The workshop on Advanced Python Django was organized to provide an in-depth understanding of advanced concepts and best practices in the Django framework. The objective was to enhance the skills of intermediate developers and help them tackle complex real-world scenarios while working with Django.

The workshop was conducted on 03rd August 2024 in the college. Total 71 students were present for the workshop.

The workshop was inaugurated at 10.00 am along with welcome of Quastech Technology team.

The workshop featured a hands-on approach where students worked on coding exercises to apply the concepts in real-time. Expert guidance on best practices in security, performance optimization, and deployment made the session extremely valuable for students aiming to scale their Django projects.

Students were actively engaged in discussions, asking insightful questions about challenging real-world scenarios. A Q&A session at the end of each topic helped student clear doubts and gain additional insights. The students provided positive feedback on the depth and practical relevance of the topics covered.

The workshop on Advanced Python Django was a huge success, offering valuable insights and practical skills to help developers improve their Django projects. The topics covered in the workshop will undoubtedly help the students build more efficient, scalable, and secure web applications. Organizing such workshops provides immense value to the developer community, empowering them to stay ahead in the rapidly evolving world of web development.

The workshop was relevant to appreciate by students. The students also got the clear visual in their mind for their future.
