Report On One Day Workshop "Shri Ganesh Idol Making"

Date : 15th July, 2025

Objective : To learn basic skills of making Shree Ganesh Idol.

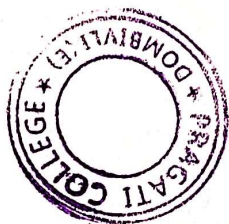

Department of Banking & Insurance has organised one day workshop on "Shri Ganesh Idol Making" on 15th July, 2025. This is the third year of the workshop. The idea behind this workshop was to give the participants hands on experience in idol making which is age old practice in Maharashtra and creating own things always brings an appreciation from our near and dear ones.

Total 26 participants have registered as batch size was limited. The workshop was inaugurated at the hands of Shri. Jagannathji Patil, chairman of TZASP Mandal in the presence of Jt. Secretary Shri. Dataji Vaze, Trustee member Shri Eknathji Patil & Shri. Vishnuji Mhatre, In charge principal Dr. Dhananjay Wankhade, Vice Principal Dr. Kirti Barad.

Convener of the workshop Mrs. Swati Pusalkar has welcomed all dignitaries and briefed about the objectives of the workshop. In Charge Principal Dr. Dhananjay Wankhade has mentioned the importance of skill development and also congratulated the participants for the participation. Chairman, Shri Patil appreciated the efforts of the participants.

After the formal inaugural program, the workshop has started by offering Haldi -Kumkum and the prayer to Lord Ganesh. Workshop Instructor Ms. Deepshikha Pandey from Deep Arts has started instructing step by step process of Idol Making. The students participated actively in the workshop and enjoyed a lot in preparing the eco-friendly Ganesh idols under the supervision of the workshop instructor. During the workshop, Many teachers and Non-teaching staff of the college, have visited the venue of the workshop.

At the final session of the workshop, The instructor also guided about the colour scheme for Idol. Mrs. Swati Pusalkar has proposed vote of thanks at the end of the workshop. The participants have taken their own idol and participation certificates with pride.
